Dear Alison,

The Institute Council has asked me to write to thank you for the support Sandersons has given IHE by your sponsorship of Yorkshire Branch. We appreciate that it's been hard work to keep up local activities and your backing has made a real difference.

I understand that your commitment extends to setting up a careers website, which we are more than happy to back, and to offering to assist with our development management training.

Again, thank you for your commitment to the profession.

Yours sincerely,
